

The image features a white background with several thick, colored lines. At the top, there are two horizontal lines: a green one on the left and a yellow one on the right. From the left end of the green line, an orange line extends downwards and then turns right. From the right end of the yellow line, a yellow line extends downwards and then turns right. In the lower half of the image, there is a horizontal blue line. From its left end, a magenta line extends downwards and then turns right. The text is centered in the middle of the page.
